Job vacancy:

Pharmacist in Germany – Recruitment day March 18, 2019 Rome

Number of available position: 10

General information:

Location: Germany

Form of employment: full time

Type of contract: Permanent job

Minimum monthly salary (Euro): 1.000 - 3.325

Job description:

A regular job as employed pharmacist will be offered after the „Approbation“ in Germany has been obtained. Therefore, an exam in technical language is obligatory. The time before the approbation will be governed by the conditions of a hospitation/traineeship in the pharmacy with specific training in technical language (about 32 h/week hospitation/traineeship, 8 Lessons/week language course) During the hospitation / traineeship the main emphasis is set on learning by observation the range of activities in a German pharmacy as well as learning and exercising the technical language in preparation for the language test. Only after passing the obligatory exam for technical language and obtaining the “Approbation” (German license for pharmacists) the pharmacists work as employee. Then they compound and dispense medications to patients on their own authority. Also very important is the individual consulting of the clients with providing information on medicines, reviewing medication interaction, safety and efficacy, as well as clinical services.
